- Re: • Ganymede Solar, LLC v. Dominion Energy South Carolina, Incorporated –
 Docket 2019-390-E
 • Follow-Up on Request for Guidance

Ms. Hill:

The undersigned is counsel of record for Ganymede Solar, LLC, (“Ganymede”). I am writing to you to follow up to my previous Request for Guidance which was e-filed in the above-referenced Docket on Monday, February 17, 2020. Let me acknowledge that I understand that you are very busy and that you have been assigned quite a large case load. However, as an attorney you understand that I must continue to follow up on behalf of my client, Ganymede, on this very important subject.

Namely, in your Directive Order of February 14, 2020, you granted the Utility’s request for a five-day¹ extension of time from their original filing date for Testimony of February 19, 2020, until at least February 24, 2020. However, you left Ganymede’s filing date as February 26, 2020. Your Order inadvertently subtracted five, or six days from the seven days Ganymede had to file responsive Testimony, originally granted by the Commission in its pre-filing letter of January 3, 2020. The result was that, your Order allowing the Utility an extra five days to file their Testimony, left Ganymede with either one or two days to file Ganymede’s responsive Testimony to the Utility’s filing (rather than the seven days granted by the Commission).

¹ The Commission Regulation on “Time” defaults to Rule 6 of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure on “Time”. Depending on whether you count February 19, 2020, or not, the Utility’s Testimony is now due on either February 24, 2020 or February 25, 2020.

Accordingly, I request an amended Order from you restoring the seven-day time frame to file Rebuttal Testimony to Ganymede as granted by the Commission in the Commission's original pre-filing letter.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me, and this correspondence is,

Respectfully Submitted,

/S/Richard L. Whitt
